We are pushing up Jack Murdock's proposal.

Committee Reports

1. ACE: Becky Fair said we are at 11 classes, not a lot. She is working to confirm classes. A signup genius will be sent by Jenny/Becky to get more teachers and volunteers overall. Registration information needs to go out when we return from winter break. Budget will be discussed at the next meeting.
2. Family Bingo Night is 1/19. Our volunteer is Pilar VanDusen. It is an early dismissal day so we can set up early. Signup genius is out but no one has signed up yet.
3. Family Nights need to be scheduled and will coincide with ACE on 2/1, 2/8, 2/15 and 2/22. Jamie is looking at Ambrogi's, Paisano's, and possibly the new Mexican restaurant, Any other suggestions can be sent her way. We made approximately $380 at both Pot Belly and Chipotle.
4. Holiday Shoppe was packed. 10% profit was $425. It went well for the first time with the new format. There will be some things to tweak and do differently for next year including scheduling shop times for different grades and determining how to distribute the "Free" box items. A google form will be sent to teachers for feedback.
5. Holiday Hoopla fell short on volunteers and had to be toned down. We had Santa, the Shoppe, concessions and movie night. There was a good crowd and Santa was busy all night.
6. Holiday parties will be on 12/22 at 2:30 like always. Rachel has the volunteer names submitted.
7. Spirit wear is done and the numbers will be correct for the next meeting.

Holiday Shoppe went well. The annual Madrigals sign along will take place on 12/22 prior to classroom parties. The school spelling bee will take place 12/13 at 1:30.

New Business

- Jack Murdock, a 3rd grader in Mrs. Hartkopp's classroom, read a well-prepared proposal for the purchase of flag football equipment. Jenny updated that Mrs. Garland gave the ok. Two sets of 3 flag football belts will accommodate enough students at recess. We will inquire about cones and a storage bin and if there are none, will purchase them.
- We will renew Penguin Patch for 2018.

Current Business

We will renew Penguin Patch for 2018.

A meeting to present the playground vendor's suggestions and discuss the options in the binder will be scheduled with Mrs. Garland. It is a fast turnaround with Spring Break installation possible.
